

Look What Grows on Iowa Farms!

Across

3. This animal produces enough wool for two sweaters.
6. Varieties of this vegetable include zucchini, acorn, and butternut.
9. Raisins are made from this dried fruit.
10. These come in a pod, are deep green and roll around on your plate.
11. Iowa produces enough of these to make nearly 1.9 billion omelets annually.
12. 75% of all grocery items are made using this Iowa crop in some processed form.
15. A pickle gets its start in the farmers field and is called by this name.
17. A dairy cow gives about 90 glasses of this food product every day.
18. These Iowa products make beautiful Christmas trees.
19. This vegetable makes a popular pie, but sometimes has a scary face.

Down

1. This vegetable is creamy white, grows in a head and is best with cheese sauce.
2. You might eat this fruit on cereal, in a salad or as a topping over ice cream.
3. These are used to make printing ink, soap, paint, cooking oil and donuts.
4. Ham, bacon and chops come from this meat.
5. An _____ a day keeps the doctor away!
7. An insect produces this food for us.
8. The stalks of this vegetable are round and straight; the tip of the stalk forms a spear.
13. Grown in the dark, this food product might wind up on your pizza.
14. This bird gobbles and is a popular food for Thanksgiving dinner.
15. This bird lays about 242 eggs a year.
16. You eat this meat in the form of a hamburger.